

BAM Training Weekend - Friday 16th to Sunday 18th October 2009

The next BAM training weekend will take place once again in North Wales staying at The New Inn at Llangynog, near Bala. Make your own way to Llangynog on Friday 16th October to arrive after 5 pm, (evening meals end at 8.30 pm), training will commence on Saturday and continue on Sunday Morning after which we will travel home on Sunday afternoon.

The weekend is open to Observers and Full members only!

Spaces are limited to 12 and you will have to share a room!

First priority is given to Observers on this weekend.

Option One - Observer Training = £95 B&B - fuel, drinks and meals will be at your own cost.

For Full Members wishing to understand what is involved in becoming an observer. Briefing, debriefing, route planning, riding improvement, overtaking, rider improvement skills.

Option Two - Rider Skills Training = £95 B&B - fuel, drinks and meals will be at your own cost.

For Observers and Full Members wishing not to undertake observer-training, option two will concentrate on improving your rider skills.

Full payment is required by cheque payable to Birmingham Advanced Motorcyclists (no cash please) by the closing date of Wednesday 16th September 2009. Your cheque will not be cashed until you have been successful in obtaining a place.

Places will be allocated on a first come, first served basis, however, priority will go to Observers undertaking Option Two.

Post or hand your applications with a cheque for the full amount to:
Steve Beggan, 6 Primrose Croft, Hall Green, Birmingham, B28 0JR
Confirmation via email. So hurry as places on this fantastic weekend will go FAST!

Ride smooth, ride safe
